

Families Matter to God

As adults, the Bible time and time again charges us with the task of passing on the story of God, the Good News to the next generation.

You cannot pass on something you do not possess.

“We have much to say about this, but it is hard to explain because you are slow to learn. ¹²In fact, though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you the elementary truths of God's word all over again. You need milk, not solid food! ¹³Anyone who lives on milk, being still an infant, is not acquainted with the teaching about righteousness. ¹⁴But solid food is for the mature, who by constant use have trained themselves to distinguish good from evil.” Hebrews 5:11-14 (NIV)

Small Group & Personal Reflection Questions:

1. If you were to be really honest with yourself, where are you right now on your spiritual journey according to the “cradle to college roadmap?”
2. Jesus talked about “having faith like a child.” In what areas of your life are you experiencing “faith like a child”? In what areas has your faith become too “grown up”?
3. What are some action steps (baby steps), that you could take to move forward in your spiritual journey? What is stopping you?
